I would like to thank all that helped with the Tate Band banquet. It is a huge event and takes a lot of people to make it a success. My heart overflows thinking of all of you that came out on a Saturday night and worked so hard at this event, to give these young adults a night they will always remember. I pray our actions were a positive influence and God's love was shown through us. A special thank you to Margaret Cook, and Dian Tyler for the many hours of planning and grocery shopping, and to Jimmy Tyler for standing over a hot fryer for 4 hours frying chicken tenders, and thank you Karen Straughn for keeping everything flowing. I can't name everyone, but you know who you are, a special Thank You to you all.
 In His Service, Jane Bell.
